Astra Pro

Finally, a machine as personal and professional as you. The Astra Pro is the perfect combination of style and quality. From its stainless steel boiler, to its thermo-circulatory design, the Astra Pro delivers the ultimate shot of espresso in the comfort of your own home or office.

The Astra Pro is designed with the same professional, commercial components as the rest of the Astra line including the same brewing mechanisms and thermal circulation.

A 2.6 liter stainless steel boiler with a 1,300 Watt heating element in a 100% polished stainless steel frame makes it very easy to produce and enjoy continuous, superior quality product at home or in the office.

Features:

- Modular Construction makes the Astra Pro the easiest and the most reliable machine to maintain.
- Self-tamping brewing mechanism (the same brew group as the commercial line).
- 2.6 liter stainless steel boiler.
- Produces continuous espressos, cappuccino and lattes.
- Automatic high-temperature switch with reset.
- Automatic shut-off feature protecting the heating element.
- Automatic water fill.
- Internal oversized power relay for added safety.
- All American nickel plated brass flare fittings eliminate possible costly maintenance.
- Stainless steel steam wand.
- Brewing systems with thermo-circulation and infusion provide absolute temperature consistency and quality.
- Teflon coated and fire resistant wiring.
- Operates with ground coffee and/or pods interchangeably - No additional accessories are necessary.
- ETL listed to NSF-4, UL 197, and CSA C22.2 No. 109.
- One year manufacturer limited warranty.
