Notes & Details

This Lancaster Table & Seating 18" x 96" granite white heavy-duty blow-molded plastic folding seminar table with 4 white folding chairs is a great addition to offices, conference rooms, lecture halls, or catered events! Including a folding table and 4 matching chairs, this set provides you with everything you need to easily offer guests a place to sit, learn, or enjoy a meal.

The table top and chair backs and seats boast a high-impact, blow-molded polyethylene construction that will not crack, chip, or peel, guaranteeing years of service. Not only is the material easy to clean, it also makes each piece stronger and lighter than comparable wooden folding tables and chairs, ensuring long-lasting use and quick, effortless transportation. Plus, the material allows for indoor and outdoor use for exceptional versatility in any location.

The table and chairs have heavy-duty powder-coated steel frames for superior strength. Each chair features an ample 250 lb. weight capacity and is contoured to fit the shape of each individual for comfort with extended use. Meanwhile, the table is built to support the weight of anything from heavy chafing dishes to laptops, backpacks, briefcases, and large stacks of paperwork.

This complete set is versatile enough for both casual and more formal, professional settings, making it an economical choice for any business. For additional convenience, they boast rubber foot cap to protect floors from scratches and scuffs while offering improved traction on slick surfaces. After your banquet, conference, lesson, or meeting is over, the table and chairs can be folded up for compact storage. Whether you're using it to complete a bridal party table at receptions or provide a place for staff or students rest and work in educational institutions, this versatile Lancaster Table & Seating folding table and chair set is sure to be an excellent investment!
