Notes & Details

Save time transporting your bun pans by stacking them on this Regency aluminum double bun pan truck. With its 200 pan capacity, this truck makes it easy to store and transport your bun pans at once. Even when used as stationary storage for unused pans, the truck will help you save space and be ready to roll whenever you need!

The heavy-duty aluminum frame makes this dolly dependable and long-lasting so that it can be used regularly in busy establishments. The frame is easy to grab, and the handle allows for quick maneuvering of the truck. Your floors will especially benefit from the non-marking casters, and the operator will appreciate that the casters fully swivel, making moving the rack even more efficient and speedy. Perfect for bakeries, hospitals, diners, and hotels, this bun pan truck is a great way to store and transport bun pans. This item is shipped knocked down, providing the best possible savings on shipping costs.
