Notes & Details

If you need to move or store large numbers of sheet pans in your commercial kitchen, this Regency end-load bun pan rack is the way to go! It holds up to 18 full-size sheet pans and is made of 18-gauge aluminum for lasting durability. It can support up to 55 lb. per pair of slides and up to 795 lb. total, making it a heavy-duty and durable option for any business.

This sheet pan rack has rail-type ledges to support the pans, spaced 3" apart. When you need to move sheet pans from storage to the kitchen or across the building to a serving area, then you can count on this bun pan rack! It comes with (4) 5" polyurethane casters to make transportation a breeze. This unit ships unassembled.
