Notes & Details

Use this Regency 7 pan end-load countertop half sheet / bun rack to create a dedicated area on your counter for cooling pans that are fresh out of the oven. With seven sturdy shelves, this rack will make it much easier to organize the cooked cookies, meats, and other products in your kitchen or bakery. The rack is fully made out of durable aluminum to give it a reliable construction. The aluminum body is light weight and sports a natural resistance to corrosion. All of the shelves have 3" of clearance between each other, which helps to promote better cooling while still providing plenty of storage space for your half-size, 18" x 13" pans. It comes fully assembled, making setup a breeze.
