Notes & Details

This Regency 60" wall mounted commercial stainless steel double line pot rack is perfect for keeping your bulky cookware and utensils within easy reach! This durable rack allows you to utilize the vertical storage space in your kitchen, keeping your counters and drawers free for other things. Plus, the staggered design allows pots, pans, and utensils to hang neatly without overlap in a smaller footprint. Use it above your work table or other food prep area to keep your kitchen organized and your staff working efficiently.

Made with durable type 304 stainless steel, the rack comes with 18 galvanized steel hooks to prevent rust from forming. Pre-drilled holes offer quick and easy installation. Hardware sold separately.
