Notes & Details

Ensure fast, reliable service with the Regency Spec Line underbar soda gun holder! Made of 20 gauge, 304 stainless steel, this unit is made to last and easy to clean. It mounts securely between your other underbar equipment to keep your soda gun (sold separately) within easy reach and attaches to the side of compatible Regency Spec Line equipment (sold separately). This unit provides housing for one soda gun and comes with a built-in cradle and a hole for a drip cup and drain connection.

This holder allows access to the interior components of the soda gun in case you need to make minor adjustments. At the same time, this unit keeps tubing and water lines hidden from view for a more professional appearance. This soda gun holder is a must-have addition to your bar or restaurant!
